ADDRESS DELIVERED BY MISS. MILDRED LEWIS RUTHERFORD: HISTORIAN-GENERAL UNITED DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Address Delivered by Miss. Mildred Lewis Rutherford: Historian-General United Daughters of the Confederacy I fear there will come to you a keen disappointment to-night, because you will not have a carefully prepared historical address; nor will you have those charming papers, charmingly read, by women of local talent, as has been the custom of my predecessor, Mrs. Enders Robinson, of Virginia, to have presented to you. But, Mrs. White, our President-General, as well as myself, your Historian-General, felt that this opportunity must not be lost - an opportunity to give some practical illustrations and needed advice regarding the collection and preservation of the history pertaining to the South, particularly that history relating to the War Between the States. When at Richmond last year you elected me your Historian-General, the highest honor in your power to bestow, I honestly confess my impulse was to refuse, but the temptation was too great. I felt I would like to accept this honor for one year, and that possibly I could get others to do what I could not do myself. On the way home I prepared an Open Letter, That letter was ready for the printer as soon as I reached Athens. There was a little delay, because our President-General had to look into the financial end of the matter, and there was still another delay in order that our Corresponding Secretary-General and our Recording Secretary-General might put me in touch with the historians, because the Minutes of the Little Rock Convention did not contain all of the Chapter historians names. I would like for the State Presidents to take note of this - all historians names should...
