Indeed, much of interest has been already published, both of a theoretical as well as of a practical nature, but it is to be regretted that in all this wealth of literature reference to results from broad studies in comparative anatomy is but scanty. What a field would this topic place at the disposal of him who might care to unravel these hidden mysteries, in seeking out the analogy between man and the lower animals! In tracing out pathological conditions we should of necessity refer to histology and physiology, for without these scientific aids to our study we lose...
