Motivation Theories, Theorists, and Emotion profiles theories of motivation and goes into detail pertaining to personal constructs and incentives. Sources of motivation can be both internal or external as the relationship between motivation and behavior is explained by the sequence of motivation. Enjoy a brief description of both theories of emotion and motivation. Freud, Jung, Adler, Calkins, James provides brief biographies of each historic individual within the field. In addition to a biography are theoretical positions of each individual providing input into their philosophical identities. Algebra, Trigonometry, and Statistics helps in explaining different theorems and formulas within the three branches of mathematics. Use this guide in helping one better understand the properties and rules within algebra, trigonometry, and statistics. Case Studies documents personal tragedies over the course of the twentieth century often pertaining to uncontrollable health ailments. At other times, these tragedies may or may not be at the hands of another. In either case, making the transition from healthy to unhealthy can be a difficult endeavor. This can take the form of physical...
