Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a very rare tract of which, although it is mentioned in several places, we no where find any account. Besides the initials on the title-page, there are good reasons for believing that it was by Barnabe Rich. It purports to have been printed in London, and such was very likely the fact, but it deserves remark, that no name of printer or publisher is found either at the beginning or end: it is dedicated by his assured freend B. R. to the renowned Gregory Coolle, chiefe Burgermaister of the Castle of Clonarde, Marquesse of merry conceits, and grand Cavalier amongst boune companions, and all good fellowship, at his chaste Chambers at Dublyne in Irelande, B. R. sendeth greeting, which is an imitation of Nash s humourous style of dedication. Rich was long in Ireland, and a portion of the tract before us relates to that country, where we take it, it was written. It avowedly grew out of the death of Robert Greene, whose peculiar mode of writing is in part adopted; and, besides alluding to the Supplication of Pierce Penniless by Thomas Nash, it mentions various productions by Greene, the whole tract being composed as if it had been the work of Greene s Ghost returning to earth after he had seen Heaven and Hell. This singular fancy is thus opened by Rich in his dedication: It was my fortune (Sir) not long since to travaile between Pancredge Church and Pye-corner, beeing somewhat late in the evening, about an houre after the setting of the Sunne; and casting up mine eyes towards the skyes, to behold the twinkling starres that had then but newly discovered...
