Excerpt: . remember Thee. And lest we should fancy that when rather implies that it is not, or cannot be, exactly always, we find that the mediation of Jesus throws this added light upon it, By Him, therefore, let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to (margin, confessing) His name. Does it seem a coming down from the mount to glance at one of our King's commandments, which is specially needful and applicable to this matter of our lips being kept for Him? Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation. None of His commands clash with or supersede one another. Trusting does not supersede watching; it does but complete and effectuate it Unwatchful trust is a delusion, and untrustful watching is in vain. Therefore let us not either wilfully or...
