Modern universities in China began in the late Qing Dynasty, which, ordered by the central government formally founded the first university, when the Imperial University was established in 1898. Reform Movement of 1898, the Imperial University as one of the Hundred Days' Reform initiatives, although the only remaining, but the test to take stereotyped, curriculum study by the justice, remains essentially a continuation of the old school. After the Battle of the Boxer, the Imperial University revoked, no graduates. 1902, Zhang Baixi ordered to rebuild the Imperial University, he emphasized that to apply for school, his re-Normal, therefore the creation of Normal, took the lead school. Normal Hall is a core educational institution of the Imperial University, is also the starting point of China's modern higher teacher education, the predecessor of Beijing Normal University. The following year, of Normal was renamed the Best division Fanke. 1908, double from the Imperial University, Normal School was renamed the Imperial superior level. From the beginning, China has established a separate and complete the teacher education system, and have a profound impact on subsequent development of Chinese education. 1908 Faculty of Minister Zhang Zhidong publishing training speech at the opening ceremony of the capital superior class Normal School, said: Teacher Education for all stages of education originated at the capital superior class Normal for national education standards. Therefore, the capital Normal, if of Beaconsfield bucket of stars, capital superior class Normal School fail in their mission, and withstood the Storm of the Century, an end to the tender shoots of the Imperial University of Normal strains of modern education, grew up and became one of the...
