Through the use of diary entries and traditional narrative, Tabares's creative and ingenious storytelling shows how everyone has a gift, even if they don't take full advantage of it, and that even between worlds, where the veils are blurred, friends matter and hope is never lost. Behold the Eye: Cerulea transports the reader from the familiar world of everyday concerns to the extraordinary world of imagination, where anything can happen, and often does. Told in a familiar, contemporary voice and written in a narrative style reminiscent of modern, young-adult classics like A Wrinkle In Time, Tabares's Behold the Eye: Cerulea conveys an uplifting message for readers of all ages that both inspires and entertains. Ages 9 and up.
