In 17 of the past 20 years, military and Federal personnel have received equal pay increases, yet the President's budget proposes an across-the-board adjustment of only 2.6 percent while the military would receive 4.1 percent in increase. This 2.6 percent increase is less than the FEPCA formula and fails to close the pay gap between Federal and private sector workers. How do you justify the lack of parity in pay And how would you address the competitive pay gap that exists in government Mr. B. I want to first begin by saying I fully support the pro-LAIR proposals contained in the President's budget. The way that we would justify this is that we are on a war footing right now and a war footing requires us to engage in the allocation of scarce resources. It is important to consider the 2.6 percent proposed increase in a broader context however....
