LES MIROIRS DE LA MONARCHIE ECLAIREE

Omniscryptum, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 220 x 150 mm. Language: French . Brand New Book. Ce livre analyse les modes de construction de l'idée de monarchie éclairée à partir des représentations françaises de l'État des Habsbourg, et de la façon dont ces représentations sont utilisées dans le discours politique français. Suivant l'hypothèse selon laquelle cette idée ne correspond pas à une catégorie unique bien définie, il s'agit de saisir, dans la pratique, les mécanismes de sa formation et les conventions sociales sur ce que doit être une monarchie idéale, voire un monarque éclairé. À partir des exemples concrets de la propagande, de l'opinion publique, et du regard sur l'autre, sont observées les stratégies et les pratiques sociales et culturelles qui forment, utilisent et transforment leurs modèles selon les situations concrètes et les acteurs impliqués. Au centre imaginaire de ce travail est un événement, le voyage de l'empereur Joseph II en France de l'année 1777, qui a accentué dans la société française le débat sur l'apparence et le rôle du roi, ainsi qu'une nouvelle critique sociale et politique. Autour de cet événement du voyage de l'empereur s'organisent les autres thèmes qui le précèdent ou le suivent.
