Va., July 4th, 1867 Ladies and Gentlemen: - I am to speak to you to-day of the American Republic. Since the advent of the Saviour of mankind, there has been a new spirit introduced into the life of humanity. Before that event, man, divorced from his God and from heaven, had exhausted the whole round of speculation in the vain attempt to find a resting-place for the soul. The superstitious worship of Nature, in all her manifold forms and features, had taken the place of the worship of the true God. The government of force and of fraud held all men in vassalage. The baser appetites dominated the higher or spiritual nature; and, when Christ came, humanity had reached the lowest point of the mere natural man. Our common nature was almost exhausted of the Divine life, and God alone saved it from extinction. From Christ went forth a new regenerating influence, - an influence supplied by the mighty power of his own life. From Him, - from this centre-point, - from this tap-root, - the tree of human salvation and progress commenced to grow. His blood supplied the sap of the root, trunk, and branches of this great tree.
