Extracts From Journal; Death Of Sir T. F. Buxton J Public Meeting On The Endowment Of Maynooth; Letter To Dr. Chalmers On The Duty Of Christian Churches In Relation To Slavery; Journey In Scotland And The North Of England! Death Of Elizabeth Fry. 1st mo. , 1st, 1845. The new year has set in, and finds me quietly at home, and peaceful, I trust on good grounds, for I can truly say, that my tranquillity is founded on the merits of Jesus Christ. Yet I think that there is also in some measure, the feeling of, If our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God; for I believe it has been my endeavour, during the past year, though not always successfully so, to keep a conscience void of offence in the sight of God and man. Yet perhaps I am presumptuous in saying so much. The Lord only knows the depth of my infirmities. On recovery from a slight attack of illness he breathes forth his spirit in the following prayer: --O Lord, thou knowest my poverty, and none of my most secret faults are hidden from thee. Suffer not thy poor servant to be separated from thee, either by the craft or the power of my souls enemy. Bring my whole self, all that I have and am, into conformity with thy blessed will. Cleanse me from all iniquity. Raise my too often benumbed soul into...
