On Thanksgiving Day, November 25, 1830: Embracing the Leading Events in the Civil and Ecclesiastical History of Said Town, to the Close of Rev. Isaiah Potter s Ministry And thou shall remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments or no. The usual way the pious mind pursues to strengthen its confidence in God, is to recall former dispensations of divine providence, and thence derive motives for future trust. Moses, in the chapter including the text, avails himself of this circumstance, to induce Israel to confide in God, and render obedience to his commands. They were at a stage in their journey, where the account of God s merciful dealings with them was calculated to elicit their devout gratitude. They had filled up their forty years in the wilderness, and stood on the bank of Jordan, a favorable land-mark where to record the first portion of their history, on their way to the promised land. To refresh their remembrance, their leader recites some of the most interesting Providences of God towards them and their fathers, that they might in future set their hope in God. This should be a leading object in all historical recollections. With this distinctly in view, let us trace the former dealings of God with the inhabitants of this town, and see if we do not find motives of renewed confidence in our heavenly Father, and occasion for sincere regret, that he has...
