Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.There are many avenues of gathering the necessary wisdom and knowledge, with regard to apprehension and attainment of the tangible aspects to most things that we experience, covet, need, and want. There are of course occupations, professions, relationships, and possessions that are of varying need and are based on a case by case basis per individual necessity. Many things don t necessarily require a full knowledge of all of the details and aspects of it s functionality, craftsmanship for utilization of it s purpose. When one begins the journey of religion or their quest in fulfillment for their journey of piety, freedom, fulfilment, and completeness in what some refer to as a higher power. There are key elements that one must consider. In most cases those elements are aspects that are taught, copied, or maybe just imagined. We as a human race don t usually experience our potential or think beyond our limitations within our own finite strength and will according to our human nature. There are a few who may even think that they could perhaps rise from the dead on their own. The reality is at the end of the day, at the beginning of nightfall, and on to the horizon of another day. We never know when our journey of the physical will end. Many never even place much thought are a multitude of thoughts in preparation for their ending, more so than the continuation and ongoing mode of one s human existence. The finite mindset sets out and plans it s natural life as though it is never going end. In fact many small and great have declared, That I am going...
